The Family Corner

"ways to help your kids get more out of the sermon"
from notconsumed.com

Talk during the sermon

"Yep, I totally just said that. I hereby give you permission to talk during the sermon. Lean over and explain those big words. Make connections to your family devotions or Bible reading at home. Whatever you do, make God's Word real, active, and living in the lives of your kids. I promise, your pastor won't get mad if you whisper something valuable to your kids while he is talking. (Just don't talk about what you want for lunch or where you are going on vacation next month.)

Helping your kids make sense of the sermon is one of the most valuable ways to help them grow spiritually. Don't miss the opportunity for fear of what others might think or say. If you go to a super quiet church (like mine) try sitting in the back or on the side if you are concerned about distracting others."
